

Anielsa Grzybek Maciolek

JUN 18, 1921 - SEP 27, 2014

Scan to Visit

Palm Beach Memorial
Funeral Home & Cemetery

Table of Contents

Obituary .....	Page 3
Events .....	Page 5
Tribute Wall .....	Page 6

Aniela Grzybek Maciolek

JUN 18, 1921 - SEP 27, 2014

Aniela (Grzybek) Maciolek, 93, passed away peacefully on September 27, 2014 in Atlantis, Florida, in the presence of her children. She was predeceased by her parents, Jozef and Wiktoria Grzybek, originally from Poland, by her brother, Walter, and her sisters, Mary and Katherine. She was also predeceased by her husband, Theodore Maciolek. She is survived by her daughters, Barbara Eckel (and her husband, John) and Betty Maciolek, by her son, Thomas Maciolek (and his wife, Elizabeth), her grandsons, Joshua and Jeremy Eckel and Geoffrey Maciolek, her step-grandsons, Carleton and Scott Coffrin, and her greatgrandchildren, Jackson and Aniela Eckel.

Aniela was born in Manchester, New Hampshire, where she met and married Theodore and where she lived most of her life. She was a long-time employee of the Manchester Savings Bank and the Manchester National Bank. When Theodore became disabled, they moved briefly to Gainesville, Florida, where she worked for the Sun Trust Company. They soon moved to Dothan, Alabama, where Aniela volunteered for the Red Cross and the Southeast Alabama Medical Center. After her husband's death, Aniela moved to Boynton Beach, Florida, her final home. Aniela was devoted to her children, to her grandchildren, and to her great-grandchildren, and she was a faithful friend to many. She had a lovely soprano voice, and in her teen years she starred in operettas at Manchester Central High School. She later sang in the choir and soloed in church, sang at weddings, and sometimes sang at other public events. She encouraged and supported her children in their educations and in their creative pursuits. She was an avid reader. Politically active in Manchester, she remained deeply interested in cultural and political affairs until her final days. She was a compassionate person who believed in the equality of all people. She will be missed by all who knew her. Her family members suggest that those who miss her may honor her with a memorial contribution to the charities of their choice. Palm

Obituary

Aniela Grzybek Maciolek

JUN 18, 1921 - SEP 27, 2014

---

Beach Memorial Park Funeral Home, 3691 Seacrest Boulevard, Lantana, Florida
33462 (561) 586-1237 in charge of arrangements.

Events

Aniela Grzybek Maciolek

JUN 18, 1921 - SEP 27, 2014

Celebration of Life Service

 Monday, September 29, 2014

 At the Families Residence
FL

Tribute Wall

Aniela Grzybek Maciolek

JUN 18, 1921 - SEP 27, 2014

AG

Alan Goode posted:

My parents, Henry & Helen Goode really enjoyed the friendship of Nellie & Ted & family. Nellie had me laughing on numerous occasions also. My mother would call Nellie "Machocovo" and I never found out where it came from. Our best to Thomas, Barbara, & Betty. Alan & Pamela Goode

November 24 at 12:58 PM

RS

Rt. Rev. Paul Sobiechowski lit a candle in honor of Aniela.

I want to share my condolences with the many that I'm sure have been expressed. I have fond memories of visiting Aniela while a pastor in South Florida. I will remember her at Holy Mass and may her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed in Christ, rest in peace. Bishop Paul and Mrs. Karen Sobiechowski

October 2 at 1:24 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Aniela by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

Palm Beach Memorial
Funeral Home & Cemetery