L.I.A posted:

Manes Salomon, my spiritual father, brother and friend. My brother was an angel used by God to help us in our most desperate seasons of our lives. He cared deeply for me and my siblings. He treated us like we were his own. He is the reason why my faith is strong. He is the one God used to lead me to Jesus Christ. He was always busy doing the Lords work. He never grew tired or faint. He suffered alot for the sake of Christ. But it was worth it. He served Christ faithfully until God took him home. I miss him everyday. He is always on my mind. I took his passing very hard. He reminds me of Apostole Paul in the Bible. He was the prime example of what it meant to follow Christ whole heartedly. He was not a fake. He was for real. His life proved it. Because of my brother, I am serving my Lord with all my heart, with all my soul and with all my mind and with all my strength. My brother meant so much to me, when I heard of his passing I fell into a deep depression. I couldn't make it to my brothers viewing or funeral. That's how terrible I was. It was hard to accept his death. My Lord saw how I was hurting and grieving and He reminded me that He was the One who called him home. He had accomplished his work here on earth. Now he is in the presence of our Holy God. I can imagine the Lord telling my brother..."WELCOME HOME GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT!!!" I love you my brother, rest in our Saviors peace. I will forever be grateful to you. I can't wait to see you and hug your neck when I've gone home to heaven too.Yours truly, L. I. A. ☺
