Rik Mazzeo posted:

Helen and Bob were gifts in my life. Their home was my home from age 11 on. I was treated like a member of the family , working at Klein's Wallpaper and Paint , a guest for lunch and dinner , and parental advice after my father died. Helen was a gracious and strong lady , with emphasis on "Lady". When I last spoke to her at Arnie's funeral she continued to be captivating , charming and kind. While her loss was arguably greater than mine , she wanted to be comforting, which was her nature . Though I did not see Helen often , she will be truly missed. My best wishes to the entire Klein family on what is a true loss. Rik Mazzeo (Mr. Wonderful)
