It was with the up most pleasure that I had the amazing opportunity to be able to provide care for Sebi. He was always so full of love and happiness. I will forever remember him as my "chubby cheeks"! He has now become an angel for a lot of us and although he may not be here physically anymore he will ALWAYS be present in thousands of people's hearts; especially his beautiful families that have been beyond amazing. There's a reason Sebastian was born so happy and full of love and it was because of all the love and happiness that he received at home from his incomparable family. My heart and prayers are with you, and may god bless you now and always. Rest in peace my chubby cheeks baby boy ❤️

Sweet little Sebi, I keep seeing those beautiful eyes watching through the window as your sister danced and the smile you smiled so big when she would come out to greet you. You were the happiest little baby I think I have ever met and so sweet. Your smile and wonder in those eyes will never be forgotten. Your time may have been short, but it was great and you touched the hearts of so many people. You were a warrior who got his wings and now you can soar high little angel. My heart goes out to your family. You were such a special little guy. May you continue to embrace them with your love during this difficult time.

The dear sweet child that is little Sebi. Though I never got to meet you , touch your face, or hear the beautiful sound of angelic laughter, I knew you well. I saw your love in the eyes of your mother and father as they shared photos of you, I saw caring in pictures of you with your brothers and sisters, I heard the angels sing with you as you giggled in the arms of your grandmother and grandfather in videos they sent me . God bless you little man, you made this world a better place in the short time you were here, and you changed us all in many ways that you will never know. God bless your family, their love and strength and hope never wavered, and never will. Until we do indeed meet one day, you will forever be a part of me. All my love angel Sebi.

Sweet Sebi, we never got to meet you. But your sweet grandparents in Augusta kept us posted from the moment you were expected. We feel like we know you, your short life has certainly touched our hearts. Kristy and Pedro, we cannot imagine the pain you feel. Know that we will continue to pray for all of you, for strength and comfort. We are so thankful that you know Christ and know that Sebi is being held by our Almighty God.
