When Sharon was 19 and I was 20 we were living at home and sharing a room. We both Had jobs but when the weekends came we partied. Not the way most people did but it was fun to us. We bought a grocery bag full of Twinkie's and a case of Pepsi and got out the Yahtzee game!! We played all night long to determine who the greatest Yahtzee player of all time would be!! We decided it was a tie!! Puddy (that is what I always called her) and I did this every weekend and we laughed about it everytime we got together. RIP Sharon I pray God will bless you and give comfort to all those who love and miss you.
