Carole was our neighbor in Richmond Texas, she was always smiling and warm. She and I became friends and shopping buddies. She was like a mother to me when mine passed away her kindness and friendship I will always treasure. Good bye Carole thanks for being there for me.

Aunt Carole was such a kind, thoughtful and loving person. She and I both shared a love of reading. It was fun to discuss some of the characters in different novels with her. She loved her family so very much. It is comforting to know she is now with the love of her life, Uncle Rudy. Love you Aunt Carole, Lynn
