I was recently was told you had joined our Heavenly Father by one of our former MetLife coworkers. My condolences to the entire Ruiz family. I can say that we had a good time when we worked at Mother Met. If I can recall, you and I were the only 2 boricuas in our department. I remember one day walking on 103rd Street and 30th Ave by Angelo's Pizzeria when we met, and I remember saying, "... hey Emma, what are you doing here...?" Lol. We had such a great time. I think it was last year when I asked about you to a friend of yours on Facebook because I was curious why you had not responded to a post card I mailed. You see Emma, I'm one that never forgets. It was then that I found out about your medical issue. Anyway my friend, you are now being cared by God's angels. Rest in Eternal Peace my friend. I know you will be taken care of very well. Your friend, Manny
