On the morning of Tuesday June 4, 2024 Norma “mima”Manuela Avila Valdivia passed away peacefully due to natural causes in the comfort of her own home surrounded by loved ones. She was a strong independent hard working woman who lived a long beautiful life. She was born into a large family, her mother deoclicia Valdivia and her father Juan Avila and her 12 siblings. She continued her legacy by raising 4 boys and aiding in raising her grandchildren until the very end. She was a very selfless person who would rather take care of her loved ones no matter the means.
