Marilyn Macron

OCT 11, 1963 - JUL 28, 2024

Marilyn Macron (nee Maria Lynn Cowhey) passed away in her home in Palm Beach the morning of July 28th, 2024, after a long illness. She grew up in Belle Harbor, New York and was a graduate of New York University and Fordham University School of Law. She was great lover of The Arts, pursuing literature, theater, and music throughout her life. She promoted reading and events under the moniker “The Literary Chick”. She is predeceased by her parents Lillian and Joseph Cowhey, and survived by her sister Madeline O'Neill (Michael O'Neill), her three daughters Alanna, Marlene, and Juliette Macron and nieces Paige and Lily. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Mesothelioma Applied Research Foundation - <https://www.curemeso.org/donate/donate-online> or Trustbridge - <https://trustbridge.com/give/>.
