Uncle Bill was, well he was everything... first he was our uncle and family, but always a friend. Living with him and Aunt Yvonne in the early 90's was nothing less than a treat!! I will never forget him, and the times he stood up for me, weather it was taking to much time to get ready for church, or leaving my dishes in the sink, he always was there, with a smile and usually a beer!! I Love You Uncle Bill and always will. My thought, prayers and of course LOVE are with Aunt Yvonne, and of course Amy, (the other love of his life!!)My Love Always, Andree##imported-begin##Andree##imported-end##

There are so many found memories I have - him showing me the blue prints to the house, teaching me how to read them and gave me an interest in architect. Though I never followed after it, I did study drafting and Interior Decorating. I remember Andree and I hanging out with him in the poll barn and though it's been many years, since I have seen him, I will miss him deeply. My greatest sympathy and love to Aunt Yvonne and the rest of the family. May he rest in peace!##imported-begin##Jeanne M. Mosso##imported-end##
