To Irene's family. I am sorry for your loss. She will be missed but never forgotten. I wish I had an opportunity to say good-bye. It has been several years since I last visited Irene with my parents, Betty and Elverado Sondrini. She was my proxy-Godmother so she was in my life I guess you could say all my life. I remember as a kid coming home from school many times and find her and your father at the kitchen table visiting, just stopping through on their way somewhere or on their way home. I wish I had known, I would have been there for her as she stood up for me. God's blessings to you all.##imported-begin##Janet Sondrini Baker##imported-end##

Jeff, Gary & family, Please accept our sympathy with loss of your Mother. I remember Irene sitting and having coffee with my Mom frequently as I was growing up. She always had a little tidbits of advise whether we asked for them or not. Irene and Mom grew to be good friends as those years passed by. I know Irene and Mom are having coffee together as I write this. God Bless you all!##imported-begin##Janie Siebenmorgan Boone##imported-end##
