To my dear friend, I sensed a void after months of not seeing you, but I chose to hold onto hope. Your visits to the post office, where you'd hand me your mail, were a beacon of joy. Though you faced pain, your resilience inspired me, brightening even the toughest days. Our last conversation left an indelible mark; I sought solace in prayer, overwhelmed by the thought of losing you. I pray that Mr. Edward's family finds strength in their faith, may God envelop them in love. Your memory will be a blessing, angel 🌹. Love always, Ashley.

My uncle ed!!! He was the most giving and welcoming old school Italian guy. Not to many left like him. I have many fond memories of him with his first wife Joanne and my cuz Jamie. He always invited people to come to visit whether it was his home or even his vacation spot. Family is number one and you knew it. But the key to all this generosity and love is respect!!!! If you were disrespectful and you lied forget about it. You don't want to be on on his bad side.If you needed to find something if you needed something done, you would call uncle Ed. If he couldn't do it he knew somebody that could.He, lived very simple life. Family good food and wine. But most important church every Sunday. I will miss you so much uncle Ed! But I know you will give me some signs. I will miss hearing the answering machine, saying your name on Sunday when we couldn't get to the phone fast enough. Love and support to family and close friends.Until we are all together again 😊🙏

Ed was what you can call a true friend. Never a holiday did he miss calling. Even though after we left Lowe's our friendship never ended. He will be truly missed. May he rest in peace.
