Tree planted by Sandrine Liburd, Willa Tavernier and Lavina Liburd. Aunt Henrietta, your hospitality and humor are well remembered. You will be missed.

Willa Tavernier posted:

Henrietta was a wonderful and loving person. I have many fond memories of visits to her when she lived in Bronx, NY, when I was a teenager and later on in Fort Worth, FL. when I was grown, after I married, and even after I had children of my own who she welcomed into her home with open arms. I was saddened to hear of her passing too late as the news was passed on through the extended family. May she rest in blessed and eternal peace.~Willa

I became a friend with Henrietta when I visited her on The Care Committee from our church. My dog, Benny, is a registered therapy dog. She was not a dog lover but fell in love with Benny and his cousin, Betty Jo, that came along. We so enjoyed visiting her in her home and spending prayer time together. She was a special person to me and I will miss her very much.
