Lionel Harris

SEP 20, 1938 - OCT 12, 2025

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Lionel, beloved husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, who departed this life at the age of 87.

Lionel lived a life rooted in tradition, integrity, and devotion to family. He was a pillar of strength and kindness, whose quiet wisdom and gentle humor touched everyone who knew him.

A proud New Yorker, Lionel spent his career as a printer helping stories come to life for generations of readers. His work was more than a job; it was a testament to his dedication and pride in honest labor.

He is survived by his loving wife, Wendy, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, all of whom carry forward his legacy of love, resilience, and generosity.

A service will be held in accordance with Jewish tradition on Wednesday, October 15, 2025 at 12:00 pm . In lieu of flowers, donations be made to a Charity or Jewish organization, in honor of Lionel's lifelong commitment to community and compassion. May his memory be a blessing.

Norman Wattman posted:

lionel was one of a dozen "kids" who lived on Bristol Street in the Brownsville section of Brooklyn. A quiet lad who never got into trouble. We reconnected several years ago and went to New Orleans for a week, along with Bruce and Heather Cohen. Lionel loved to talk about his days as printer. Rest in peace old friend, you gave it your best. Normie $ Helene
