In Loving Memory of Gina Charles Victorin (1968–2025)

Gina Charles Victorin, 57, of Boynton Beach, Florida, passed away peacefully on November 4, 2025. She was born on October 7, 1968, in New York City, New York.

Gina made a profound impact on everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. She lived her life with kindness, faith, and quiet strength — touching hearts through her love, compassion, humor, and resilience. She will be dearly missed by her many nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and friends.

Gina embraced life with joy and a generous heart. Her legacy will continue to live on through the love she gave and the lives she touched.

Today we lay Gina to rest, and my heart is full of both sorrow and gratitude. Sorrow because we have lost someone irreplaceable... and gratitude because I was blessed to call her my cousin, my sister, my family. Thank you, Gina, for the joy, the laughter, and the love. I lost my buddy — the one I shared stories, and even a little family gossip with. I will miss you deeply. ☐☐

You were such a force, strong in every way that mattered, yet so full of life. You had this energy that drew people in, a presence that made everything feel lighter just because you were there. Even when things were hard, you faced life head-on, never losing your laughter or your warmth. I always admired how you carried strength like it was second nature not loud or heavy, but steady and certain. You taught me that being strong doesn't mean shutting the world out; it means meeting it with an open heart. You lived fully, loved deeply, and never held back your joy. I miss you more than words can say. But when I find myself laughing in the middle of a hard day, or standing a little taller when life gets tough, I know that's you — still with me, still teaching me how to live with strength and light. Thank you so much for always being there for me, even when life wasn't easy. Your love, wisdom, and kindness shaped so much of who I am. I'll carry your guidance and your spirit with me always. I Love you forever Marenn

Working together we became friends and had some really great times. Your beautiful soul from within, your smile, jokes, laughter and kindness shined all the time. Always there for anyone and providing words of wisdom. My heart is saddened at your loss from this life as we know it. You are now an angel among us, restored and at peace. We will see each other again one day. All my love my sweet sister and friend. Celine

My fondest memory is the simplest one, yet it set the course for everything: the moment we realized we shared a name. That realization was met with a burst of laughter—not just a polite chuckle, but a deep, shared hilarity that instantly dissolved any distance between us. It was a moment of pure, unexpected joy that perfectly captured the lightness of your spirit. But beyond the fun, I remember the immediate kindness in your eyes; it wasn't just a coincidence to you, but a sign, and you welcomed me into your life with an open warmth that made me feel instantly safe and understood. That spontaneous connection, fueled by a simple name, spoke volumes about your adventurous spirit—you were always ready to embrace the surprising, wonderful things life threw our way, and I am so grateful that our paths crossed the way they did. May your beautiful soul rest in peace. GINA SURIN

Gina was a devoted wife, a loving mother, and a cherished friend to all who knew her. At 57, she touched countless lives with her kindness, warmth, and unwavering strength. Her laughter could brighten any room, and her compassion knew no bounds. Gina's greatest joy was her family, and her love for them will live on forever in their hearts. Though she is gone, her spirit remains with us—guiding, inspiring, and reminding us of the beauty of a life well-lived. Rest in peace, Gina. You will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

As my godmother, one of my fondest memories of Gina was when I was preparing for my high school senior prom. Even though we were states away, she made sure to send me different styles and accessories to help me out as I was so stressed. She truly was a bright light and I am proud to call her my godmother.

Today, our hearts are heavy as we say goodbye to our beloved Gina — a woman of remarkable strength, faith, and grace. For over a decade, Gina faced scleroderma with quiet courage and unshakable dignity. She never complained, even in her hardest moments. Instead, she poured her heart into caring for others — her beloved mother, her devoted husband, and her cherished children. Her life was a beautiful example of love in action. Gina's kindness, her warmth, and her great sense of humor touched everyone who knew her. She taught us what it means to endure with grace, to love without limits, and to trust God even in the storm. Though our hearts ache, we take comfort in knowing she is now free from pain, embraced by the light of our Lord, and reunited with peace everlasting. Rest in eternal love and serenity, couz. Your strength and your spirit will live on in all of us. ❤️🙏👍👍

Gina's contagious laugh is one thing I will never forget. Gina was also such a supportive and thoughtful sister. I remember when she took over my bridal party, especially the little flower girls, during my wedding at Holy Name Church, and she guided them properly while making them feel comfortable with their bridal duties. She didn't have to do that, but that's the kind of soul she was. You will be greatly missed, my friend. May you rest in perfect peace! Edwige

In Loving Memory of My Sister My sister was the embodiment of strength and courage. No matter what she was going through, she carried herself with grace and resilience. You could never tell if she was in pain or if something was weighing on her heart—she never let it show. Her selflessness knew no bounds; she was always ready to lend a helping hand, regardless of her own circumstances. Even in her final moments, her thoughts were with others. That was who she was—compassionate, giving, and full of love. She faced her journey with quiet dignity and unwavering faith, knowing and accepting when it was time to rest.
