My fondest memories of Mrs Williams was in high school. Mrs Williams had the spirit of joy!! played basketball with Twan and Mrs Williams was at every game cheering us on with so much energy and joy. Yelling at the refs for bad calls and booing our opponents 😂😂 She came to the game for Twan, but she was all our "basketball mom". She would bring us homemade brownies with the nuts. I looked fwd to her brownies more than playing the games 😂 She also had a great sense of humor. She couldn't pronounce my name (Nilka) so she would call me "nickel, dime and qtr" and we would just burst out laughing 😂😂 I'm so glad I was blessed to meet a beautiful, loving soul as hers. She definitely left a mark. Rest in Peace Mrs Williams ❤️🌹

I will never forget the day that Auntie Beverlylavonne took me shopping at the Westside Pavilion Mall here in Los Angeles for a maternity dress. It was for my first born and we were all over that mall! She bought me a cute dress and talked me into buying some shoes too. Such a special day...just the two of us! ❤️
