Celebrating the Life of Mayra Cristina Dauta

March 16th, 1957 - February 3rd, 2026

We celebrate the beautiful life of Mayra Cristina Dauta, a loving wife, mother, and grandmother whose kindness, support, empathy, compassion, and loyalty brightened every day. Her journey began in Havana, Cuba and concluded in Boynton Beach, Florida, leaving a trail of joyful memories.

Mayra filled her days with travel, dancing, and shopping, always eager to share new sights, lively music, and good finds with those she loved. Each trip, each song, and each outing became another happy chapter in her story.

Her steady kindness and ready support lifted family and friends through every season. Those qualities remain a lasting gift, reminding us to meet others with the same open heart she showed so naturally.

Mayra is lovingly remembered by her husband Ramon Dauta, Jr.; her sons Michael, Bryan, and Jason Dauta; daughters-in-law Suyen and Omaira Dauta; grandchildren Leah, Anthony, Julian, and Olivia Dauta; and her sister Sonia Aviles with brother-in-law Ramon Aviles. She was preceded in passing by her father Francisco LaFlor and mother Hilda LaFlor (Gutierrez).

We honor Mayra by carrying forward her spirit of adventure and her gentle care for others. Today and always, we smile at the memories and celebrate a life well-lived.
