Marcelle Laranjeira lit a candle in honor of Lorna.

I met Lorna when our daughters were in VPK, and from the very beginning she was always warm, friendly, and smiling. What started as our girls' friendship quickly grew into a meaningful friendship between us as well. Lorna was truly a force to be reckoned with. She had a way of guiding and encouraging those around her, especially when it came to raising and supporting our children. She helped me navigate so many important decisions—from choosing the right schools and extracurricular activities to making sure my kids stayed motivated and aimed high. When it came time for bigger milestones, like preparing for the SAT and going through the college application process, Lorna was there every step of the way. Her advice, support, and belief in my children made a lasting difference in our lives. I will always be eternally grateful for her guidance, her strength, and her friendship. She touched our lives in ways that will never be forgotten.

Lorna Foster posted:

Lorna was so easy to talk to, and even when she was sick she would always have something to say that would make me laugh. One of my fondest memories is of her , visiting us from Georgia and plopping in my bed to wake me up. We just laid there and talked and laughed. I wish I had told you more often that I loved you. I miss you Lorna Marie.

To my sister in law Lorna you are absent from the body but present with the Lord and savior. You'll be greatly missed my sister. Rest peacefully in the arms of your savior. Pray for Bernard, Ashlee and Laura that our Lord will grant them solace in time of grief.

Lorna and I started high school in Montego Bay Jamaica in 1978. She was very athletic and would laugh at you if she won a race that she was not expected to win. Lorna was very fun. She left HMCHS and went to St Andrew's High for girls in Kingston. Each time we go to Kingston, for sure, all we would visit her. She would introduce us to her friends, e.g., Nadine Sutherland (singer). I was so happy when we reconnected on Facebook. Rest easy Lorna. Gone too soon.
