Christine Irene "Dillon" Bostinto

APR 4, 1997 - APR 15, 2026

Christine Irene "Dillon" Bostinto, age 29, of Wilton Manor, Florida, passed away on Wednesday, April 15, 2026.

Dillon was born in Ulan-Ude, Russia, on April 4, 1997. He was adopted by his parents Francine and Andrew Bostinto on December 17, 1997, at 8 ½ months old.

Dillon graduated from high school in 2015 and attended some college. He worked in sales, at doggy daycare facilities, and at a rehabilitation center. He found purpose in his work as a behavioral technician, supporting individuals as they navigated mental health challenges with patience, empathy, and care. His perseverance and compassion left a lasting impact on those he served.

Dillon faced life's challenges with quiet strength and determination. Even in the face of setbacks, he kept trying, learning, and moving forward, demonstrating a strength that inspired those around him. Dillon enjoyed video games, music, drawing, movies, skateboarding, and spending time with friends. He played guitar, piano, and saxophone. One of his proudest achievements was earning a black belt in taekwondo, a sport he loved. He also loved animals, especially dogs.

Dillon is survived by his parents, Francine and Andrew; his aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends. He will be deeply missed. He was preceded in death by his brother, Drew Bostinto.

A memorial service for Dillon will be held on April 28, 2026, at 11:00 a.m. at Palm Beach Memorial Funeral Home and Cemetery, 3691 Seacrest Boulevard, Lantana, FL 33462. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the National Alliance on Mental Illness or the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA).

Death is nothing at all. It does not count. I have only slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unbroken continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner. All is well. Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before. How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!
