I guess the one thing I will always remember is when we were kids, Vickie and Val were in KY visiting with Grandma and we were playing on the balcony. They locked me out and I kept knocking on the glass sliding door. I guess I hit it a bit too hard (ok know I did) and it busted in a million pieces. We all 3 had to work to pay for the door. I think it shocked all of us about the same. I sure didn't think it would break that easily and neither did they. I loved it when they came up north with Grandma. We always had a good time.

I have the best cousins in the world. I am so sorry for Chava, the girls and Valorie's sister and brothers. I always had a great time with Val when she would visit with Moma and Daddy. Rest in peace Valorie. We love you and the family.
